

from
BEE BALM
to BEYONCE

HOW CAN WE
GARDEN COMMUNICATORS REACH OUT TO A MORE DIVERSE AND URBANIZED AUDIENCE?

TIME to EXERCISE

1. Write down 5 topics that you're passionate about

1. Write down 5 topics that you're passionate about
2. Choose one that you're comfortable talking about publicly

1. Write down 5 topics that you're passionate about
2. Choose one that you're comfortable talking about publicly
3. Write down 5 journals, websites or other venues that feature articles on this topic

1. Write down 5 topics that you're passionate about
2. Choose one that you're comfortable talking about publicly
3. Write down 5 journals, websites or other venues that feature articles on this topic
4. Write down 5 headlines that tie plants into the topic

1. Write down 5 topics that you're passionate about
2. Choose one that you're comfortable talking about publicly
3. Write down 5 journals, websites or other venues that feature articles on this topic
4. Write down 5 headlines that tie plants into the topic
5. Share with group

Chamomile in the Clinic:

How horticultural therapy can enhance your HIV treatment

Boys Who Brunch

From Fabulous to Fierce with Five Easy Plants

Girl That Makeup Ain't Made Up!

Vanilla
from Mexico
Vanilla planifolia

Soybean
from Asia
Glycine soja

Spurge from West Texas
Euphorbia cerifera

Grass from Europe
Hordeum vulgare

Castor Bean
from the Middle East
Ricinus communis

Palm from South America
Astrocaryum murumuru

*And a few dozen other plant, animal, mineral and synthetic raw ingredients.

1. Write down 5 topics that you're passionate about
2. Choose one that you're comfortable talking about publicly
3. Write down 5 journals, websites or other venues that feature articles on this topic
4. Write down 5 headlines that tie plants into the topic
5. Share with group

Christopher Freimuth

cwfreimuth@gmail.com

www.cfgardens.com